

Julie Williamson is a mediator and arbitrator concentrating on the resolution of business, employment, and probate disputes. She helps companies and individuals solve problems related to real estate transactions, contract disputes, business dissolutions, class and FLSA collective actions, bankruptcy issues, insurance practices, employment practices, financial fraud issues, investment claims, employee benefits, and a variety of other matters.

She is committed to resolving disputes outside of the courtroom to minimize the costs of litigation—time, money, emotions, and distraction—and enable parties to return to pursuing productive lives and profitable businesses.

JULIE McCURDY WILLIAMSON, ESQ.

As an arbitrator and mediator, Ms. Williamson has resolved disputes involving FLSA collective actions, business dissolutions, breach of fiduciary duty, probate matters, franchise and license agreements, partnership agreements, limited liability companies, real estate transactions, and other claims of breach of contract and related torts.
