

AB CONFLICT RESOLUTION SERVICES

James "Jame" B. Jameson, Esq. is an experienced and diligent mediator and arbitrator, with over 30 years of legal and practical business experience. Jame has earned a reputation for creating a safe and neutral environment where all parties can express their concerns and perspectives. By fostering an open dialogue and advocating for effective and creative solutions to many different types of disputes, Jame is committed to guiding the parties to a resolution that satisfies their needs and interests. Whether presented with a business dispute, work-place disagreements, interpersonal conflicts, contractual or personal injury claims, the conflict resolution skills that James has developed over the years will facilitate a constructive dialogue to bring about a collaborative outcome.

JAMES "JAME" B. JAMESON, ESQ.

Since graduating from law school in 1984, Jame's practice was primarily the representation of businesses and high net worth individuals in distressed financial situations. He has served as a neutral third party in negotiating several business "divorces" and restructuring plans, as well as a Chapter 11 Trustee, Debtor's counsel and advisor for creditor committees.

In 1992, Jame leveraged his legal and business experience to focus on mediation and arbitration and served on the Mediation Panel of United States Arbitration and Mediation in Houston, Texas. Since that time, Jame has earned the trust of a number of Civil Courts to serve as a third party neutral and has successfully mediated over 500 disputes in the civil litigation area.
